COMUNICATO STAMPA â?? CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

BERLIN, Sept. 1, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? BLUETTI, a technology pioneer in clean energy, will showcase its Balco 500 smart balcony solution at IFA 2026 in Berlin from September 4â??8. Centered on the core concept â??From Balcony to Everywhere,â?• BLUETTI is fostering a smarter way of living through reliable, adaptive energy across homes, worksites, and off-grid settings.

Smarter Living Through Smarter Balcony Solar Energy

To navigate Europeâ??s fluctuating electricity pricing, balcony solar systems are evolving from simple plug-in panels to integrated battery solutions. BLUETTI advances this shift with the Balco 500 all-in-one system, providing whole-home-level energy storage and management, enhanced by three smart systems.

Together, BLUETTI balcony solutions create a crossover energy ecosystem where storage units are no longer isolated devices, but interconnected components delivering intelligent, flexible power wherever itâ??s needed most.

Breaking Boundaries with Professional Power & Everyday Mobility

BLUETTI will also display two new offerings for specific applications:
