SEOUL, South Korea, Oct. 26, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? Coway, South Koreaâ??s leading wellness tech company, announced that its flagship air purifier, the Airmega Mighty2 (AP-1512N), has been named to TIMEâ??s Best Inventions of 2026 in the Household category.

To compile this yearâ??s list, TIME solicited nominations from TIME editors and correspondents around the world, and evaluated each contender on key factors including originality, efficacy, ambition, and impact. In its feature, TIME praised the Airmega Mighty2 as â??The double-duty air purifier,â?• highlighting its ability to seamlessly perform both powerful air purification and real-time indoor air quality monitoring.

This recognition marks a significant milestone, reaffirming Cowayâ??s long-standing technological expertise and strong brand authority accumulated in the global air purifier market. Building on the decade-long legacy of its predecessor (Airmega Mighty AP-1512HH) â?? a 12-year NYT Wirecutter Top Pick and 2026 Hall of Fame inductee â?? the Airmega Mighty2 elevates the indoor air care experience for a new generation, combining proven reliability with intuitive usability and modern aesthetics.

Engineered for medium to large spaces, the Airmega Mighty2 delivers powerful, energy-efficient performance tailored for modern households:

â??Being recognized in TIMEâ??s Best Inventions of 2026 validates our commitment to combining superior filtration performance with thoughtful, user-centric design,â?• said a Coway official. â??We are thrilled to see our latest air care innovation recognized on the world stage as we prepare to bring this award-winning experience to even more consumers worldwide.â?•

The Airmega Mighty2 is currently available in North America at Cowaymega.com, with regional availability in Europe and Australia scheduled for the first quarter of 2027.
