New 24/7 operations center anchors Crisis24â??s decades of maritime expertise in one of the worldâ??s leading seafaring nations

ANNAPOLIS, Md. and MANILA, Philippines, June 18, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? Crisis24, a global, AI-enhanced leader in integrated risk management, intelligence-led security and medical operations, personal protection, medical concierge and crisis consulting, today announced the launch of its new Maritime Operations Center (MOC) in Manila, Philippines.

The new MOC further strengthens Crisis24â??s maritime practice, which consolidates the heritage of Drum Cussac and NYA International and is trusted by leading ship owners, operators, insurers and law firms to address risks including piracy, geopolitical conflict, sanctions, regulatory shifts and AIS interference.

â??Opening a new global Maritime Operations Center in Manila underscores the importance of our Crisis and Security Consulting teamâ??s work in this field. Frequently activated for sensitive and high-stakes matters, including piracy and kidnap cases and extracting crew members from active conflict zones, the Crisis24 maritime team is active 24/7 with global coverage across regions including the Indo-Pacific, Somalia, Nigeria and Haiti,â?• said Sid Kosaraju, President at Crisis24.

End-to-End Maritime Capabilities

The new MOC houses a dedicated team delivering Crisis24â??s maritime services, which include:

The Crisis24 CSC Response Group deployed and supported on an unmatched 350+ crisis activations last year; on immediate notice to move, the team is ready to deploy to the Board room and conflict zone with current and competent full-time experts. Beyond this the Maritime team remains the most active and â??match fitâ?? team in the industry.

Recent activity includes:

The new MOC is part of Crisis24â??s global network of operations centers, while its location in the Philippines provides access to the talent pool and expertise of one of the worldâ??s leading seafaring nations. To learn more about Crisis24â??s services, visit crisis24.com.
