COMUNICATO STAMPA â?? CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

MUNICH, Germany, June 24, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? We are thrilled to report that Intersolar Europe officially opened its doors yesterday at the Messe MÃ¼nchen, and Risen Energy has been busy welcoming visitors to Booth A1.370. We brought our comprehensive product matrix for residential, C&I, and utility-scale applications, demonstrating how our â??Full-Stack Risenâ?• strategy meets Europeâ??s evolving energy needs.

Residential Energy Management: Minimalist Design Meets AI Intelligence

To address Europeâ??s demand for energy independence in limited spaces, we introduced our Noor Series Stackable All-in-One ESS, Hifz Series Stackable Battery Pack, and Velta Series Hybrid Inverter.

C&I Green Partner: High Density & Lifecycle Value

For businesses needing to cut costs and ensure security, our iCon Series C&I Liquid-Cooled ESS offers a compact solution.

Utility-Scale Benchmark: Terrestrial & Aerospace Excellence

We are closing the loop from generation to storage for utility projects.

The era of scale-driven growth is over; the age of value-driven innovation is here. We remain committed to upgrading global energy systems through full-stack technology.

We are live at Booth A1.370 today! Come visit us at the Messe MÃ¼nchen to unlock the future of energy together.
