COMUNICATO STAMPA ••• CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

Strengthening local support and accelerating charger uptime across the Swedish market

AMSTERDAM, April 7, 2026 /PRNewswire/ ••• Zerova, a provider of EV charging solutions, today announced a service and maintenance partnership with Comfort in Sweden. The agreement establishes Comfort as Zerova's local partner for after-sales service and maintenance, enhancing response times and long-term support for customers across Sweden.

Comfort brings strong on-the-ground experience as an installer and service organization. Under the agreement, Comfort will focus on service and maintenance, ensuring that Swedish customers benefit from a clear support structure and dependable local execution.

•••Having a strong local service partner is essential to customer confidence and operational continuity,• said Brian Huang, Business Operations Director, Zerova. •••Comfort's presence and capabilities in Sweden help us deliver faster response times and reliable long-term performance for customers.â•

•••Service quality is critical as the EV charging market scales,â• said Mattias Lindgren Head of National Business, Comfort. •••We are proud to partner with Zerova and support customers in Sweden with structured maintenance and on-site expertise.â•

The partnership is already active, with local service capabilities now in place to support customers across Sweden.
