COMUNICATO STAMPA - CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

Frankfurt, 29th of April 2026 - Swedish regulated crypto asset manager Virtune today announced the listing of the Virtune Hyperliquid ETP on Deutsche Börse Xetra in Germany. Virtune is a Swedish digital asset manager and issuer of physically backed crypto exchange-traded products (ETPs). Since its launch in 2023, Virtune has earned the trust of over 160,000 investors and today manages around USD 300 million in assets under management (AUM), reinforcing its position as one of Europe's leading issuers of regulated crypto ETPs.

Virtune is now expanding its product offering with the listing of the Virtune Hyperliquid ETP. This listing underscores Virtune's commitment to providing European investors with secure, transparent, and regulated access to the digital asset market.

Christopher Kock, CEO of Virtune: "We are very pleased to introduce the Virtune Hyperliquid ETP as our 23rd ETP. With this launch, the product is now broadly available to investors across Germany and the wider European market. It marks another important step in expanding our offering and continuing to make digital asset investments more accessible."

Virtune Hyperliquid ETP:
