TRADING UPDATE Q1 2026: Strong Start to 2026 with Accelerating Strategic Transformation

ATHENS, Greece and LONDON, May 7, 2026 /PRNewswire/ METLEN Energy & Metals PLC (LSE Listing: MTLN, RIC: MTLN.L, Bloomberg: MTLN.LN |Athens Listing: MTLN, RIC: MTLNr.AT, Bloomberg: MTLN.GA, ADR: MYTHY US) today announces its Trading Update for Q1 2026. The Company delivered a strong start to the year, reflecting solid momentum across Energy, Metals and Infrastructure, together with continued execution of the strategic investment program, pointing to a speedy return to the medium-term trajectory, announced in the CMD in London, April 2025.

Evangelos Mytilineos, Executive Chairman stated:

METLEN has started 2026 with strong operational momentum across all its business sectors. Our continued investments in energy transition, critical raw materials and defence, combined with disciplined execution, position the Company to navigate a complex geopolitical environment while delivering sustainable growth.

Outlook

The first quarter of 2026 confirms METLEN's strong positioning across its diversified business model, with all Sectors contributing to growth.

The Company continues to operate in an environment shaped by heightened geopolitical tensions and ongoing conflicts, which impact energy markets, supply chains and defence demand. Nevertheless, these conditions also underscore the strategic importance of METLEN's synergistic business model, further strengthened by its activities in energy security, critical raw materials, and defence solutions.

Looking ahead, management maintains a cautiously optimistic outlook for 2026, supported by a strong project pipeline, increasing demand and prices across core sectors and continued execution of the Company's investment program.

Further details will be provided at the Annual General Meeting scheduled for 21 May 2026, in line with the Company's long-standing practice.
