LIUZHOU, China, Nov. 12, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? The 2026 LiuGong (000528.SZ) Global Dealer Conference & 11â?¢26 Global Customer Day was held in Liuzhou, China, from November 10 to 12 under the theme â??E-Intelligence, Empowering Tomorrow.â?• About 2,000 dealers and customers from around the world gathered to explore opportunities in the construction equipment industry and learn about LiuGongâ??s latest progress in technological innovation, global business development, and sustainability.

The event opened on November 10 with an outdoor ceremony and dynamic equipment demonstrations. Zheng Jin, Chairman of LiuGong, delivered the opening remarks, reflecting on LiuGongâ??s development and reaffirming the companyâ??s commitment to addressing customer needs through innovation, advancing the industry with green and intelligent solutions, and strengthening partnerships worldwide.

A total of 210 machines were on display, including 96 new energy machines, across eight application sectors: mining, quarrying and aggregates, road construction, municipal projects, infrastructure, industrial operations, agriculture and forestry, and oil and gas. Eleven machines demonstrated integrated mining operations across seven scenarios, highlighting the coordinated use of electric, autonomous, and remotely controlled equipment in demanding environments. Another 16 machines were available for hands-on experiences.

The year 2026 also marks the 60th anniversary of LiuGong wheel loaders. Since developing Chinaâ??s first wheel loader in 1966, LiuGong has continued to advance its products and technologies. This year, its T-Series wheel loaders received the 2026 Red Dot Award: Product Design, marking the companyâ??s third Red Dot Award.

On November 11, the conference focused on corporate strategy and business development. LiuGongâ??s management team presented updates on the companyâ??s overall business performance and overseas operations, reviewing progress in 2026 and outlining priorities for future growth. In the first half of 2026, LiuGongâ??s overseas revenue reached a record high for a half-year period, accounting for more than 50% of the companyâ??s total revenue. Looking ahead, LiuGong will continue to pursue its dual-engine strategy of globalization and electrification, with a focus on product innovation, service capabilities, delivery efficiency, and localization.

Sustainability was another key focus. Through its Green Alliance commitment, LiuGong and its global dealers and partners reaffirmed their shared efforts toward a more sustainable future. The conference also featured new energy product launches, an electrification industry think tank session, and parallel forums exploring green technologies, intelligent applications, and market opportunities. An awards ceremony recognized outstanding achievements and contributions, further strengthening engagement across LiuGongâ??s global network.

During the conference, LiuGong and its global dealers and customers signed letters of intent, setting a new historical high and reflecting strong market confidence in LiuGongâ??s products and solutions and the commitment of its global partners.
