WATO invites you to le Bal des Morts, the most extravagant funeral-themed party of your life

Ten years after its last public celebration, the Parisian event agency WATO (We Are The Oracle), renowned for its spectacular international events, is preparing to orchestrate the most spectacular of all resurrections: Le Bal des Morts.

At dusk on Saturday, April 25, the Oracle calls upon the greatest lovers of extraordinary parties to follow the path to a mysterious manor, hidden somewhere in Paris.

This one-of-a-kind masquerade ball will revolve around the theme “the most extravagant funeral-themed party of your life,” and has been conceived as a truly collaborative and immersive work of art for its guests.

Set within a décor reminiscent of the most elegant 19th-century aristocratic funeral, the experience will blend immersive theatre, rituals, spectacular surprises, cabaret performances, and a joyful dancefloor.

The cornerstone of the experience will be the guests’ costumes—each more extravagant than the last within a chic neo-gothic universe. Imagine extraordinary characters inspired by figures such as Morticia, Dracula, Baron Samedi, or the Queen of Hearts from Alice in Wonderland, waltzing in a spectacular ballroom.

To guide every guest in choosing their costume, a dedicated concierge service will be available: purchase, rental, or bespoke creation.

In the spirit of the most iconic masquerade balls of Versailles, Venice, or Vienna, designed for aesthetes for whom celebration and costume are a true art of living.
