COMUNICATO STAMPA â?? CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

UniAthena is expanding its online MBA portfolio with specialized programs through international university partnerships.

OXFORD, England, March 20, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? UniAthena is expanding its specialized MBA portfolio to address emerging global workforce competency gaps through industry-aligned programs delivered in collaboration with Guglielmo Marconi University, Italy, Abertay University, UK, and Universidad Catolica De Murcia, Spain. These collaborations provide internationally recognized academic credits, professional certifications, and structured progression pathways for working professionals.

Professionals interested in exploring MBA specializations, admission requirements, or enrollment pathways can visit www.uniathena.com for complete program details.

â??Business education must evolve from knowledge delivery to capability building. Professionals today need learning that directly strengthens decision-making and leadership performance,â?• said Firoz Thairinil, CEO, UniAthena.

â??Through our specialized MBA programs, UniAthena is preparing professionals to translate insight into execution and lead organizations through long-term global transformation,â?• he added.

Specialized MBA Pathways

Advancing Global Workforce Development

Programs are delivered through fully online learning supported by personal tutor guidance, digital library access, collaborative discussion forums, and modular payment structures that allow professionals to study while employed. Eligibility pathways include academic degree entry or mature entry routes requiring relevant managerial experience.

Learners completing these programs earn qualifications aligned with European higher education frameworks and professional certification standards supported by partner awarding bodies. Prospective learners can explore program comparisons, tuition options, and application timelines online before submitting enrollment forms.
