More than 700 nominations from 37 nations and territories were evaluated in the world's premier business awards for technology innovation; IBM leads organizations with nine Stevie Awards

FAIRFAX, Va., July 23, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - The winners of the 2026 Stevie® Awards for Technology Excellence were announced today. Now in its third year, the international awards program recognizes outstanding achievements in technology by organizations, teams, and individuals developing innovative products, services, and solutions across every industry.

The Stevie Awards for Technology Excellence honor excellence in areas including artificial intelligence (AI), information technology, financial technology (fintech), healthcare technology, business technology, communications technology, green technology, manufacturing technology, retail technology, aerospace, biotechnology, and many other industries. Organizations of every size—public and private, for-profit and nonprofit—from anywhere in the world are eligible to participate.

More than 700 nominations from organizations in 37 nations and territories were evaluated this year by more than 180 technology and business professionals serving as judges. Winners were selected based on the average scores assigned during the independent judging process.

Awards Ceremony in Paris

Winners will be honored during a red-carpet awards event on Wednesday, October 28, 2026, at the Pullman Paris Montparnasse in Paris, France. The event will also celebrate winners of the 2026 Stevie Awards for Great Employers, The International Business Awards® , and the German Stevie Awards. The ceremony will be streamed live worldwide, and tickets are now on sale.

“We congratulate all of the winners in the third annual Stevie Awards for Technology Excellence for their outstanding achievements,” said Maggie Miller, President of the Stevie Awards. “Innovation continues to transform every industry, and this year’s winners demonstrate how technology is improving businesses, organizations, and people’s lives around the world. We look forward to celebrating their accomplishments in Paris this October.”

The Stevie Awards for Technology Excellence are presented by the Stevie Awards organization, producer of nine of the world’s leading business awards programs, including The International Business Awards® and The American Business Awards®.
