COLOGNE, Germany, April 22, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - The 2026 International Congress of JRE-Jeunes Restaurateurs concluded in Cologne after two dynamic days, gathering 500 participants, including +400 chefs and restaurateurs from 21 countries.

Held on 19-20 April under the theme RE-GENERATION SEED THE FUTURE, the congress placed Cologne at the centre of global gastronomy. The programme focused on innovation, sustainability, and hospitality reinforcing JRE's commitment to shaping the future of the industry.

RE-GENERATION is an invitation to reflect on how we evolve, enhance our culinary heritage, empower teams, and take a broader view beyond the kitchen. Daniel Canzian, International President, JRE

A key milestone was JRE's expansion into South America, with founding members from Argentina, Chile, and Peru joining the network. This move strengthens JRE's global reach and deepens cross-cultural exchange within its community.

The congress opened with a Gala Dinner hosted by JRE-Germany. Four two-Michelin-star chefs delivered a menu celebrating regional identity and craftsmanship, supported by guest chefs.

The JRE-International Awards recognised excellence across six categories, honouring individuals driving innovation, sustainability, and hospitality forward.

The programme also explored the evolving role of chefs as entrepreneurs and leaders. "We are no longer only chefs, we are entrepreneur hosts, and the future depends on how we empower our teams," said International VP Nicolai Wiedmer. Fellow VP Katrin Steindl highlighted the importance of service, noting that hospitality plays a defining role in the industry.

The event concluded with a celebration on the Rhine and the announcement of a partnership with UNITED WATERWAYS, aimed at elevating hospitality in river cruising and supporting future talent through training opportunities.

JRE continues to strengthen its role as a global community dedicated to creativity, sustainability, and entrepreneurship. Slovenia was announced as host of the 2028 International Congress, marking the next step in JRE's international journey.<https://jre.eu/en/international-congress-2026>
