Joint venture accelerates national-scale ITMO registries, settlement-ready market rails, and Paris-aligned digital MRV, supporting a 100B+ global pipeline of forest and nature-based ITMOs

DAVOS, Switzerland, Jan. 21, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - Aleria, a sovereign AI company, and Tawasal, a leading UAE-based Super App, announced a joint venture today with Xange.com to assist governments in establishing national registries, monitoring, and market rails to support more than 100B+ ITMOs across the globe.

Xange.com, an environmental intelligence software and market-infrastructure provider, creates the foundation necessary for the robust global ITMOs market envisioned in the Paris Agreement, unlocking opportunities for mitigation-rich nations with:

Article 6 requires governments to operate credible registries, data systems, and settlement processes under national authority," said Eric Leandri, CEO of Aleria and Tawasal. "This joint venture focuses on delivering the technical infrastructure needed to support compliant accounting, monitoring, and transfer of mitigation outcomes. By combining Aleria's sovereign data capabilities, Tawasal's digital platform, and Xange.com's market infrastructure, we are enabling countries to implement Article 6 mechanisms in line with Paris Agreement requirements."

By partnering with Tawasal and Aleria, Xange.com will expand to governments and enterprises in Africa, the Middle East, South America, Asia and other regions critical to fulfilling the Paris Agreement.

"We've identified and earmarked a long-term pipeline of more than $100 billion in Paris Agreement-aligned outcomes across forestry and nature-based programs," said Esteban van Goor, CEO and Founder of Xange.com.
