QINGDAO, China, June 12, 2026 /PRNewswire/ â?? Hisense, a leading brand in global consumer electronics and home appliances, is celebrating the kickoff of the FIFA World Cup 2026â?¢ as an Official Sponsor of the tournament, bringing fans closer to the excitement of football through technology and immersive experiences.

As The Origin of RGB MiniLED, Hisense continues to advance display innovation through its latest RGB MiniLED technology, powered by Chromagic, delivering more natural and real color experiences for sports fans worldwide. Throughout the FIFA World Cup 2026â?¢, Hisense is bringing this leadership to footballâ??s biggest stage through its pitch-side advertising, featuring the messages â??The Origin of RGB MiniLED TVâ?• and â??Innovating a Brighter Lifeâ?• â?? showcasing both its pioneering display technology and its vision of creating technology that enriches everyday life.

To celebrate the opening of the tournament, Hisense is launching a week-long fan experience at New Yorkâ??s Hudson Yards. The pop-up experience combines interactive football installations in collaboration with Adidas, stadium-inspired display zones, digital graffiti creation activities, and FIFA World Cup 2026â?¢ official merchandise giveaway. Visitors can experience vivid visual interactions powered by RGB MiniLED, explore Hisenseâ??s latest large-screen innovations, and engage with immersive entertainment experiences designed to recreate the atmosphere of match day inside the home.

As football unites audiences across the world once again, Hisense continues to demonstrate how cutting-edge innovation and human connection can go hand in hand. From showcasing â??The Origin of RGB MiniLED TVâ?• on footballâ??s biggest stage to bringing fans together through immersive home experiences, Hisense remains committed to its mission of â??Innovating a Brighter Lifeâ?• â?? creating technology that not only performs brilliantly, but also enriches the moments that matter most.
