MUMBAI, India, July 22, 2026 /PRNewswire/ CAMSO Construction & CEAT Specialty today announced the appointment of Jason Canning as Vice President & Head of International Sales for CAMSO Construction and CEAT OHT business. In this role, Canning will lead the company's global sales strategy, drive international business growth, and strengthen relationships with OEM partners, distributors, and customers across key markets.

Jason Canning brings more than 25 years of international commercial leadership experience across the specialty tyre, industrial products, and engineered materials sectors. He has built a career-long reputation for delivering sustainable revenue growth, developing high-performing international sales organizations, and forging long-term strategic partnerships with leading OEMs, distributors, and a global customer base.

"I am excited to join CAMSO Construction and CEAT OHT at such a pivotal time for the organisation," said Canning. "I look forward to leveraging my international experience to strengthen our global partnerships, expand our market presence, and drive sustainable growth for the business."

Commenting on the appointment, Amit Tolani, Director, CAMSO Construction & Chief Executive, CEAT Specialty said, "Jason's international experience and proven track record of building high-performing sales teams make him an outstanding addition to our leadership team. His deep understanding of the OHT products landscape, along with strong OEM and channel relationships, will support our global expansion."

Canning's appointment reflects CAMSO Construction and CEAT Specialty's continued investment in top global talent to support the company's international growth ambitions and its commitment to delivering customer-first, high-quality solutions worldwide.
