CLARK, PHILIPPINES â?? Media OutReach Newswire â?? 16 November 2026 â?? Junior Chamber International (JCI) has named the 2026 Ten Outstanding Young Persons (TOYP) of the World. The ten honorees, from Japan, Malaysia, Nigeria, Syria, Tunisia, the USA and Venezuela, were announced at a press conference held during the 2026 JCI World Congress at the Marriott Hotel in Clark.

All under 40, the honorees were selected from nominations worldwide. Their work spans medicine, education, culture, science and childrenâ??s rights.

At the press conference, the honorees shared their personal stories and goals, encouraging young people to pursue excellence in their careers and public service.

â??JCI exists to help young people create positive change. These ten honorees show what that looks like worldwide,â?• said Alejandra Castillo, 2026 JCI President.
