Whisky Live Paris Exclusive:

Thierry B nitah, Chairman and CEO of La Maison du Whisky, said: "As we celebrate 70 years of La Maison du Whisky, we are pleased to continue this long-standing collaboration with Kavalan. This year's selections form part of our 2027 Creations Collection - The Anthologists, celebrating our role as a curator of exceptional spirits, and we are delighted to share these latest single casks with whisky lovers across Europe and at Whisky Live Paris."

“2026 is a meaningful year for both Kavalan and La Maison du Whisky, and we are delighted to mark these milestones with a partner who has shared our journey for more than a decade,” said Mr. YT Lee, Chairman of King Car Group. “Kavalan has remained committed to exploring what Taiwanese whisky can achieve. LMDW has played an important role in sharing that journey with whisky enthusiasts in France and across the markets it serves. We deeply appreciate their passion, expertise and long-standing support, and look forward to continuing to bring the spirit of Taiwan to whisky lovers around the world.”

The Kavalan booth at Whisky Live Paris 2026 will recreate the atmosphere of Kavalan’s whisky warehouses in Taiwan. Inspired by the distillery’s maturation spaces, the immersive setting will invite visitors to experience the world in which Kavalan whisky matures while discovering and tasting the whiskies themselves.

About Kavalan Whisky

Kavalan Distillery in Yilan County has been pioneering the art of single malt whisky in Taiwan since 2005. Our whisky, aged in intense humidity and heat, sources the crystal meltwaters of Snow Mountain and is enhanced by sea and mountain breezes. These conditions combine to create Kavalan’s signature creaminess. Taking Yilan County’s old name, our distillery is backed by more than 45 years of beverage-making under parent company, King Car Group. We have collected 1,000 gold or higher awards from the industry’s most competitive contests.
