COMUNICATO STAMPA - CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

International advisory and fiduciary services firm KENDRIS is expanding its presence in Luxembourg after being granted the OEC license, enabling the firm to broaden its local service offering.

ZUG, Switzerland, Sept. 9, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - The independent Swiss-based KENDRIS Group, with more than 200 professionals and offices across international financial centres, has been active in Luxembourg through its subsidiary KENDRIS Luxembourg SÀrl since 2024, providing services in its capacity as an economic adviser.

KENDRIS Luxembourg now holds the required authorisations from the Ordre des Experts-Comptables (OEC), enabling the company to offer a broader range of regulated services locally, particularly in the areas of domiciliation, accountancy and tax. This development reflects the Group's continued commitment to strengthening its capabilities in Luxembourg and supporting clients with integrated, locally rooted expertise.

At the same time, the Luxembourg team continues to grow. This development is supported in particular by the integration of an established team with extensive experience in Luxembourg companies and funds, as well as by active recruitment initiatives aimed at further expanding KENDRIS's local presence.

Murad Ikhtiar, who is supporting the development of KENDRIS Luxembourg as an Advisor: "I am very pleased to bring my experience and knowledge of the local market to this project and to support KENDRIS in further strengthening its presence in Luxembourg. The combination of our strong local expertise with KENDRIS's capabilities provides a real competitive advantage."

"The expansion of our Luxembourg platform marks an important milestone for KENDRIS and underlines our long-term commitment to serving our clients with tailored solutions," said Adrian Escher, Partner and Chairman of the KENDRIS Group. "By combining local expertise with our international network, we are well positioned to provide seamless cross-border support to high-net-worth individuals, family offices and institutional clients alike.â?•
