COMUNICATO STAMPA - CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

BARCELONA, Spain, Feb. 3, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - As MAXHUB takes part in Integrated Systems Europe (ISE) 2026, the solution provider in integrated commercial display & UC is presenting its latest developments in collaboration technology. The exhibition runs from February 3-6, 2026, at Fira de Barcelona.

So, what can visitors expect from MAXHUB at ISE 2026?

Product Launch on the Opening Day

On the opening day of ISE 2026, MAXHUB hosts the official launch of its new products., showcasing a range of groundbreaking advancements. Furthermore, MAXHUB's ongoing collaborations with Microsoft and NDI are also featured during the event. Representatives from both companies take part in the press conference and share updates as part of the launch session.

During the launch, MAXHUB brings a series of new products.

The first is the Videobar XBar Series, an all-in-one collaboration solution for Microsoft Teams Rooms (MTR). The XBar Series combines four cameras and a Windows-powered system into a single device. It supports 3-in-1 flexible installation options, making it suitable for meeting rooms of different sizes.

The industry's first touch console for Surface Hub and XBoard - MAXHUB Universal Console was also introduced at the launch event.

Visitors can also see the Digital Signage CMB Series, the world's first NDI®-certified smart display. The CMB series is purpose-built for business and optimised for Microsoft Teams Rooms. When the MTR system is activated, the display illuminates. Once the meeting concludes, it subsequently deactivates.

MAXHUB unveils its all-new LED All-in-One display, the MAXHUB Raptor Series V3 Lite. This Lite series achieves a breakthrough in ultra-slim design. As an All-in-One display, it retains MAXHUB's core strengths, supporting stable wireless screen sharing and convenient BYOD functionality. The product comes with a dedicated management backend, supporting remote device management.

In addition, MAXHUB presents Pivot+, a new web-based platform for unified device management.

The Co-Create 100 Launched

MAXHUB partners with Microsoft to launch The Co-Create 100. This coalition will provide 100 fully-equipped Microsoft Teams Rooms to selected leaders from the Global 3000. It will also collaborate with global innovation leaders to share success stories and demonstrate how Microsoft Teams meeting rooms enhance efficiency and create competitive advantages.
