COMUNICATO STAMPA - CONTENUTO PROMOZIONALE

BARCELONA, Spain, March 3, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - uCloudlink Group Inc. (NASDAQ: UCL), the world's leading mobile data traffic sharing marketplace, today unveiled its strategic roadmap at Mobile World Congress (MWC) 2026, focusing on unlocking significant market opportunities through its unique terminal-side advantages. Driven by its proprietary CloudSIM® and AI HyperConn® technologies, the company is empowering partners to scale global networks with zero infrastructure cost while capturing untapped profits across three digital frontiers.

To turn this vision into reality, uCloudlink is aggressively bridging three critical divides to create new business gold mines:

Bridge Borders & Networks: Turning cross-border friction into limitless roaming.
Connect Everything & Internet: Uniting isolated IoT silos into a seamless worldwide web.
Transcend Species Boundaries: Closing the emotional and digital gap between humans and pets.

The Three Strategic Engines of Growth

- 1. The Global Connectivity Disruptor: eSIM Trio Targeting a multi-billion-dollar legacy market of 4 billion smartphones with physical SIM slots, uCloudlink introduced the eSIM Trio - the industry's first Global Super Black Card.
- 2. The Empathetic Frontier: petpogo Ecosystem Capitalizing on the $320 billion global pet market, uCloudlink debuted petpogo, a digital ecosystem designed for pets in the AI Era.
- 3. IoT Hyper-Growth: Operations + Algorithms uCloudlink is committed to bringing in breakthroughs in the world of IoT. The patented technologies help our partners scale the service and streamline the process.

Accelerating the Business in Motion Lifestyle

uCloudlink continues to lead the MBB (Mobile Broadband) and LIFE segments with flagship solutions, including:
