AstraZeneca, Bristol Myers Squibb, Grünenthal, Novo, Roche, UCB and more to showcase new approaches for connected customer engagement, agentic MLR, and medical impact

BARCELONA, Spain, Oct. 29, 2026 /PRNewswire/ - Veeva Systems (NYSE: VEEV) today announced that leaders from AstraZeneca, Bristol Myers Squibb, Grünenthal, Novo, Roche, and UCB are among those who will share strategies for driving commercial and medical excellence at Veeva Commercial Summit, Europe, 18-19 November in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Attendees will hear how industry-specific AI is enabling sales, marketing, and medical teams to improve customer engagement, uncover valuable insights, and accelerate compliant content delivery. Veeva will showcase how field and digital interactions can become Commercial Evidence, helping biopharmas better understand HCP and patient needs and improve treatment outcomes.

As one of Europe's largest gatherings of life sciences leaders, Veeva Commercial Summit brings together 1,200+ industry experts. More than 100 sessions will highlight customer success and AI innovations with Commercial Cloud and Data Cloud, including:

Unlocking new capabilities with Agentic Commercial

Building the data foundation for AI

Delivering greater medical impact to improve patient outcomes

"The pace of innovation across life sciences is accelerating, with AI creating new opportunities for more meaningful, timely engagement with HCPs and patients," said Chris Moore, president of Veeva Europe. "Veeva Summit brings together a community of leaders to share learnings and ideas as the industry advances toward an Agentic Commercial model.â?•

The event is open exclusively to life sciences professionals, who can register at veeva.com/eu/Summit.
